- 5 Soviet poster TASS-window with caricature of the relation of the German Reich to its unstable allies Hungary and Romania © Deutsches Historisches Museum. ["Fatal Care"; Hitler: "The situation on the eastern front draws my attention towards your countries"]

- 6 Deportation of inmates from the Körmen ghetto (Hungary) towards Auschwitz-Birkenau, 19th June 1944 © Holocaustz Emléközpont, Budapest.

- 7 Page of the „Auschwitz-Album“ with photographs of the arrival of a transport from the Beregszász ghetto, 26th May 1944 © Yad Vashem, Jerusalem.

- 8 Aquarelle „Punishment during roll call“ by Zofia Rozensztrauch (later: Naomi Judkowski), 1945 © Yad Vashem Art Museum, Jerusalem. ["Schultz, the leader of the work commando, is on duty! For minor infractions (failing to walk in line when marching through the camp gate), the punishment was a prolonged kneeling during the roll call. The above named SS man came up with such punishments for no reason whatsoever and also would beat and kick anyone who happened to be nearby. Auschwitz-Birkenau F.K.L. [Women's camp] - The arms were to be kept raising during the entire time of kneeling."]
